

Coach Bob Boyle has played and coached soccer in many capacities since his youth playing days in Okemos, Michigan. As a college student-athlete, he played soccer for the Bowling Green Falcons where he was a 1st Team All Mid-America Conference selection as the team achieved a #3 national ranking and a NCAA tournament appearance in 1992. As a board member at America SCORES Denver from 2006 - 2013 he supported ASD staff and chaired several initiatives to help advance ASD's innovative "poetry and soccer" mission (poesía + fútbol = alegría). In 2010 Bob was selected by the Colorado Rapids Youth Soccer Club and a panel of his coaching peers to receive Colorado Youth Soccer's Developmental Coach of the Year award. He is Cofounder of grassroots community soccer projects SOCCER ELECTRIC and 303FUTSAL. Bob and his wife and three kids live, work and play way too much soccer in Denver's Park Hill neighborhood.

